

Name: Bayan Shobaki

Institution: Al Quds Open University

Country: Palestine

Role: Responsible for proposal writing and fundraising

Email: bshobaki@qou.edu

Bayan Shobaki, currently working at the project department at Continuing Education and Community Service/Al-Quds Open University. She is responsible for proposal writing and fundraising at the center. She has over than 9 years' experience in project management, proposal writing and financial management. She manage for different international and national project such as the TEFL - ePAL project that is funded by Erasmus+. She has a master degree in Business Administration (MBA) specialized in entrepreneurship and innovation. Previously she was working in a local NGO as a finance officer, she is a member of many international and local organizations, and a steering committee member of the cultural innovator network, moreover she participated and organized many international workshop.