

Name: Atef Shkokani

Country: Palestine

Institution: Birzeit University

Role: Innovation and Entrepreneurship Unit programs' coordinator

E-mail: ashkokani@birzeit.edu

Atef Shkokani has a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Birzeit University, concentrates on Innovation and Entrepreneurship graduated in June 2020. He has a Bachelor's Degree from Al-Quds Bard University, which is a partnership with Bard University in New-york in 2015, his degree in Economics and Computer Science. Atef has four patents in different sectors, and he is the first winner in the International Innovation competitions Mediterranean Inventors Fair. In Feb 2020 got the first award in Innovation competition as the best inventor and best patent that held in Tunisia. Atef certified from Everest Global Invention Organization in the USA, Europe France Invention (REF #201), International Union for Sustainable Development of Invention and Innovation, and International Invention Fair Tunisia. On the other hand, he is certified from the World Intellectual property Organization in Patent research and writing after he got three individual courses with them in addition to one was in Geneva lately in 2019. Atef is working since two years ago at the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Unit at Birzeit University as a program's coordinator. He is working with students and faculty members at Birzeit University in commercialization, the ideas and research to proof of concepts and products to be ready for the market. The support includes technical, networking, business development, convert ideas to be more innovative, patent research, registrations, development business model, market research, financial model, and more other services. Moreover, he is supporting Social Entrepreneurship based on sustainable development goals.