

Name: Haifaa Shuhaibar

Country: Palestine

Institution: SWG-The Society of Women Graduates Role:

Programs Manager

E-mail: hay001.sh@gmail.com

Ms. Haifaa received her Bachelor in Computer Information System at Al-Quds Open University in Gaza and she then continued to receive a Master degree in Business Administration from Islamic University, Gaza. She started working as IT trainer at the Society of Women Graduates-SWG in 2000, then she was hired programs and projects manager in 2010. She is responsible for technical supervision, follow up and implementation of projects' activities, assist the finance department in preparing periodic financial documents and reports, in addition monitoring and evaluation of the projects by reporting to donor on the projects' outputs and outcomes. From these donors that Ms. Haifaa has worked with -GIZ, NPA, UNDP, Islamic Relief, Taawon, AWFD, and the world Bank.

She has 12 years of Projects Management experience, this includes conducting needs assessments, overseeing all field coordination for a large project in Gaza and also, she undertaking a wide range of office-based tasks to support this work (including strategic planning, reporting and representation). As such she has gained an excellent understanding of the humanitarian and development infrastructure, with particular expertise in gender equity, program design and start-up, monitoring & evaluation, facilitation and participatory approaches to community development and management.