

Name: Monica Fasciani

Country: Italy

Institution: USGM –Università degli Studi Guglielmo Marconi

Role: Senior Project Manager

E-mail: m.fasciani@unimarconi.it

Monica Fasciani is a Senior Project Manager at Università degli Studi Guglielmo Marconi, Research & Development Area. Since 2003, she has become increasingly involved in national and international projects in the field of technology-enhanced learning, teaching and learning technologies, 3D virtual environments, and multimedia didactic environments. Monica has designed and led a number of training initiatives in the area of project management and learning innovation. Next to this, she has gained a significant experience in the monitoring and evaluation of small and large-scale projects (R&D projects as well as projects funded by the Erasmus+ Programme). She is currently Project Manager for the KUTEL - Kazakh Universities To Foster Quality Assurance Processes In Technology Enhanced Learning – project (CBHE) Over the past years she cooperated in managing the eVET project – Online vocational education and training platform, professional development work-based learning in Europe.