

Name: Randa Abdelhay

Country: Palestine

Institution: Al Quds Open University

Role: Projects Coordinator

Email: rabelhay@qou.edu

Randa Abdelhay is working as a projects coordinator at the Continuing Education and Community Service Center/QOU. She holds master degree in International Studies from Birzeit University in 2016. She completed her bachelor degree in English Literature at Birzeit University in 2010.

In her current position, she is responsible for for overseeing the community service and academic projects of from their initial development through their implementation. In Monitor and assign resources appropriately to streamline project efficiency and maximize deliverable outputs. She has over 10 years experience working in Project Management. She had coordinated and managed local, national and international projects funded by donors like : US Consulate, UNDP, Erasmus+ Programme, NDC, British Consulate, CRS,USAID, Save a Children, UN. In the previous years, she worked in local NGOs as a projects officer, Proposal Writer and in fund Raising. Additionally, she worked as a field evaluator - freelance assistant .

She had participated in several trainings, the latests was Proposal Development, Research Administration and Dissemination on 2018m by Norte Dame for Global Development