

Name: Walaa El Hayek

Institution: The Society of Woman Graduates - SWG

Role: Project Coordinator

Email: walaahayek2016@gmail.com

She works in the Association of University Graduates as coordinator for our heritage project and has previously worked for the project to promote the access of orphaned children education in kindergarten as well as coordinator of the empowerment for employment project and many other projects and initiatives implemented by the Alumni Association in partnership with funders such as the World Bank, the Taawon Foundation, the Employment Fund and other funding agencies that have the ability to partner with the foundation's management to prepare strategic plans for the foundation as well as write project proposals and help obtain funding for those projects as well as have the ability to develop her self in any scope that related in project management.